5 Ways You Can Love Your Church

You’re pastor is busy trying to make this happen but he can’t do it all. You’re intentional efforts at fostering community will help your church move forward in a big way. 5 Give regularly to your church.

Yes you should give out of the love in your heart toward God. And no you shouldn’t give simply because the church needs money.

Five Ways You Can Love Your Church

What you think about your church will reveal the depth of love you have for your church. Jesus said it this way in Luke 6:45 “Out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks.” The best practical way to examine your “church thought life” is to review your most recent thoughts connected to your most recent church conflict or.

Do You Love the Church

Paul gives great attention to ecclesiology the doctrine of the church in his letter to the Ephesians. In fact we could say Ephesians answers this question. What is the church? In Ephesians 2:19–22 the chief metaphor Paul uses is that of a building—the household of God. Christians are part of the household in the sense that they have been adopted into the family of God which is another

Visiting a Catholic Church for the First Time

I was told by a number of people that when you visit a Catholic Church for the first time you can say three prayers and they will be answered. This ONLY applies to the first time you visit a specific Church. I travel for business and typically attend daily mass at different parishes around the country. Thus I would have an opportunity to utilize this prayer request the first time I attend a.
